INET – RECOGNITION FOR INTEGRATED APPROACH TO CORPORATE SOCIAL RESPONSIBILITY (CSR) IN MACEDONIA FOR 2010

(Skopje, 12.07.2011). INet received Recognition for overall commitment (integrated approach) to Corporate Social Responsibility for small enterprise in 2010. The official ceremony of the Awards Leaders in Social Responsibility for Philanthropy and Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) in Macedonia for 2010 was held on Monday, 11th of July, in Hotel Aleksandar Palace, Skopje, organized by the Center for Institutional Development (CIR).

The event was held for the fourth time with the sole objective to identify good practices and responsible action to acknowledge the legal entities and individuals for their contribution to the revival and development of values such as solidarity, respect, ethics, humanity and charitable.

"I am honored that this year INet has justified the practice of social responsibility and obligations to the community at large. Our recognition is particularly significant because it confirms the continuity of the activities that INet has been taking over the years - activities that create and enhance development objective values of this event "- said Nadezhda Dimitrovska, Chief Operating Officer of INet.

After reviewing the 47 received nominations, the commission decided to increase the number of awards in 15 categories. The members of the commission were representatives from the business community, media, civic organizations and experts from the country, taking into account the activities and projects of companies in the area of social responsibility activities and their contribution to the community.
